Academic departments interested in using these special exam periods must obtain approval from the appropriate college dean and the associate vice president for Academic Programs prior to scheduling the exam or notifying students. Arrangements must be made for Friday evening classes to use a special exam period.

FRIDAY EVENING, SATURDAY, OR SUNDAY CLASSES

Students taking Friday evening classes will take final examinations at their regular class times on Friday, December 20. Students taking Saturday or Sunday classes will take final examinations at their regular class times on Saturday, December 14 or Sunday, December 15.

UNIVERSITY POLICY ON FINAL EXAMINATIONS

Final examinations, if required by the instructor, will be given at times scheduled by the university.

• For the instructor, these times are identified in the Faculty Center.
• For students, these times are identified in the Student Center.

For a traditional view of the final exam schedule, visit http://www.fullerton.edu/scheduling/. Once established, the final examination schedule may not be changed unless approved by department and program chair and the dean of the college. Makeup final examinations may be given for reasons of illness, verified emergency, or other serious and compelling reasons approved by the instructor. An instructor shall not shorten the academic semester by scheduling an in-class final examination before the week scheduled for final examinations. No major examinations shall be given during the last week of the semester that is scheduled for instruction unless there is also to be a final examination at the time assigned in the Class Schedule.

"Take-home" Final Examinations

When a take home final examination (or paper/project) is due during the final exam period, it shall be due no earlier than the day scheduled for the final examination in that class.

Final Examinations in Online Courses

Final examinations for online courses, whether they are delivered asynchronously online (i.e., not within a specified time block), synchronously online (i.e., within a specified time block), or face-to-face, must be completed no later than 5:00pm on Friday, December 20, 2019.
